Tuscaloosa – Although Shelton State Community College was forced to cancel its annual Honors Day activities due to the recent storm, awards have been made to over 100 students recognizing their successes and achievements at Shelton State.

“The cancellation of our planned ceremony in no way diminishes the hard work of so many students here at Shelton State. Their sacrifice to further their education is a testament to their dedication and their contributions to life here at Shelton State are truly appreciated. All of the faculty and staff join with me in congratulating each of them on their achievements and in wishing them all the best in their future endeavors,” said Shelton State President Mark A. Heinrich, Ph.D.

2010 All-Alabama Academic Team - Cody Osmer and Malia Bunt were named to the All-Alabama Academic Team by the Alabama College System. They also competed for a place on the All-USA Academic Team for Community Colleges. This competition is sponsored by Phi Theta Kappa, the American Association of Community Colleges, and USA TODAY. The program recognizes scholarly achievements and leadership accomplishments of students enrolled in community, technical, and junior colleges.
