THEATRE TUSCALOOSA ANNOUNCES COSTUME SALE FUNDRAISER

September 21, 2011 (TUSCALOOSA, AL) – Theatre Tuscaloosa will be selling a large portion of its extensive costume inventory to raise money and create space for new costumes. The sale will take place October 12-15 in Theatre Tuscaloosa’s costume shop (room 2925 at Shelton State’s Martin Campus). Costumes will be sold by the bag-full, and each bag will cost just $5.

“This is a great opportunity to get an amazing Halloween costume at a great price,” said Theatre Tuscaloosa costumer Jeanette Waterman. “I get requests all the time about our costumes, but this is the first time that we’re making them available to the general public. Although we’ll be sad to see them go, we will be glad to see them go to good homes and to gain the funds and space that we need.”

The sale will include a wide variety of items including hats, shoes, boots, suits, dresses, shirts, jackets, pants, and other unique items. All the costumes in the sale are unique because they have been used in one or more of Theatre Tuscaloosa’s productions.

“Whether you want to own a little piece of Theatre Tuscaloosa memorabilia or you just love to play dress up, this is a great opportunity,” said Executive Producer Tina Turley. “I’m getting some fun things for our granddaughter Tatum to play with.”

Sale hours will be as follows:
Wednesday, Oct. 12: 12 noon-7:30 p.m.
Thursday, Oct. 13: 12 noon-7:30 p.m.
Friday, Oct. 14: 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
