Shelton State Celebrates Constitution Day

(Tuscaloosa) - Alpha Epsilon Iota, Shelton State’s chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, facilitated a voter registration drive for the College on Wednesday, September 17, 2014. The drive was a celebration of Constitution Day; September 17th marked the 227th anniversary of the framers’ signing of the Constitution. It was ratified a year later. During the event, Librarian Glen Johnson performed a recitation of the preamble and numerous students registered to vote while others took information about registering online.
