SPRING 2017 GRADUATES AND HONORS AT SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Tuscaloosa, Alabama – Commencement exercises for Shelton State Community College were held on Thursday, May 4 at the Martin Campus. Interim President Cynthia T. Anthony, Ed. D., presided over the ceremony. Tuscaloosa Mayor Walt Maddox delivered the commencement address.

Also part of the 2017 commencement events, Honors Convocation was held earlier the same day. The accomplishments of Shelton State students were celebrated, and College award recipients were named. The five major College awards were given to the following students:

H.I. James Outstanding Technical Student Award – Antheletha Willis

I.W. Mitchell Outstanding Technical Student Award – Taylor Elizabeth Rodgers

Norman C. Cephus Special Achievement Award – Taylor Elizabeth Rodgers

Thomas E. Umphrey Outstanding Freshman Award – Tyler Yarbrough

Leo Sumner Outstanding Sophomore Award – Phillip Andrew Stronge

In addition to College awards, students receiving transfer and Shelton State Foundation scholarships were recognized. The Shelton State Foundation awarded 49 scholarships totaling $81,000. Transfer scholarships were awarded to various four-year institutions and exceeded $600,000 in total value.
