Literature Review

- Book can be anything you would like to read that has at least 200 pages.
- Reviews will be oral and written

1. Written Review – a sample for the written review will be provided.

2. Vocabulary Analysis – Attached to the review should be a list of fifteen (12) new words that you encountered while reading the book. Each word entry should contain the following information. A form for the analysis will also be provided
   a) Word
   b) Page and chapter the word is found in the book
   c) Phonetic pronunciation of the word
   d) Part of speech as used in the book
   e) Definition as used in the sentence from the book
   f) Sentence from the book with the word underlined
   g) Sentence of your own
   h) Vocabutoon, picture, acrostic, or other means to remember the word

3. Oral Review – you are required to have a visual aid for your oral presentation. This will include anything tangible that can aide you in discussing the book you have read. Some ideas include pictures, collages, paraphernalia regarding the subject matter, Powerpoint presentations, costumes, etc. Your actual presentation should take at least five minutes. During this presentation, you should be able to give us detail about your book and be able to express your reaction. You will not be allowed to read your written review to us.

   Make your presentation and paper the best it can be.

   Make sure you ask questions if you need to do so.
