WEST ALABAMA HEALTH COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

1. For a student currently enrolled in a health professions degree program at Shelton State Community College, or an applicant to one of the degree programs that has been accepted for the following term; however, students in the Medical Transcription course of study shall be excluded from being eligible for this scholarship. Priority will be given to applicants that are students obtaining an education which will enable them to return to the workforce, or students who are also parents and who are pursuing a degree to better provide for their family;

2). The applicant must be a resident of one of the following counties at the time of application: Bibb, Hale, Fayette, Greene, Lamar, Marengo, Pickens, Sumter, or Tuscaloosa counties. Proof of residency must accompany the application, and such proof may be a current drivers’ license or other comparable documentation;

3). An applicant must submit a written statement of at least three (3) full paragraphs in length, detailing how the scholarship would positively affect their ability to pursue the degree being sought by the applicant, if the applicant is chosen for the scholarship. Priority will be given to applicants that illustrate how this scholarship will affect their ability to pay for an education they would not otherwise be able to afford, or which will ease the burden on themselves or their family due to their current situation in life. Applicants should also be able to identify their career goals, and whether they plan to remain in the West Alabama area after completing their degree;

4). An applicant must submit their transcripts and all documentation required by Shelton State. A minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale is required, or the equivalent academic standing based upon the applicants prior educational history.

5). The applicant must also provide a recommendation from someone who is familiar with the applicant’s career goals, and their commitment to the health profession within which the applicant is pursuing their degree. If a recent high school graduate, the applicant should provide a recommendation from a teacher or other advisor that has knowledge of their desire to obtain the degree sought, and their dedication to actually enter the profession for which the degree is being sought. It is the desire of the West Alabama Health Council that students who receive this scholarship be committed to actually practice the profession which they are studying, so that the student can make a positive contribution to the health and well being of the citizens of West Alabama. (Two $800 scholarships)
