SHELTON STATE AND TUSCALOOSA REALTORS ASSOCIATION TEAM UP TO HELP THE SALVATION ARMY

Tuscaloosa, Alabama – Shelton State Community College (SSCC) and the Tuscaloosa Association of Realtors have teamed up to help stock the Salvation Army food pantry. Donations of canned food may be delivered to Shelton State’s Martin Campus through Thursday, November 5, 2015, at 5:00 p.m.

Using the donated canned items, Shelton State drafting students will design and build a can structure. The design of the structure will remain a mystery until it is unveiled on Monday, November 9, 2015. The construction will be on display through Thursday, November 12, 2015.

For more information, contact Holly Elliott at helliott@sheltonstate.edu.