THEATRE TUSCALOOSA ANNOUNCES CHRISTMAS MUSICAL

With book, music, and lyrics by Dan Goggin, this follow up to Nunsense features audiences’ favorite sisters taping their first TV special in the convent basement studio. Joining in the fun this time is Father Virgil and some of Mt. Saint Helen’s most talented students. Filled with Nunsense humor, this show includes funny songs such as “Santa Ain’t Comin’ to Our House” and “We Three Kings of Orient Are Us.” With an uproarious take on Tchaikovsky’s Nutcracker ballet, this show is filled with hilarious, heart-warming moments, making it the perfect holiday event.

Nuncrackers is directed by Tina Turley, Executive Producer of Theatre Tuscaloosa, who directed Theatre Tuscaloosa’s production of Nunsense in 1998.

“Nuncrackers will bring the gift of laughter and joy to your family’s holiday season,” says Turley. “We have a tremendously talented production team and an outstanding cast, so I know our audiences will have a wonderful time!”

The production team includes John Hisey, lighting designer; Lindsey Jones, choreographer; Wheeler Kincaid, scenic designer and technical director; Leslie Poss, musical director; Charles Prosser, stage manager; and Jeanette Waterman, costume designer.

The cast of Nuncrackers includes Carol DeVelice, Matthew Eubanks, Beth Stomps Feller, Alikah Hartley, Porsche Kemp, Amber Mills, Jenny Ryan, Brodrick Ryans, Brody Southern, Davida Tubbs, Kollin Ward, and Laura White.
