The Stories of Twenty Alabama Holocaust Survivors Told in Photographs, Paintings and Text
by Becky Siegel and Mitzi J. Levin

Darkness into Life offers glimpses into the private memories of Alabama men and women who were children and teenagers during the Holocaust. Their stories are a complicated patchwork of suffering, loss, cruelty, despair, bravery, and hope.

---

“This show must not be ignored. It carries for all people a timeless lesson to be learned by all generations to come.”

James R. Nelson,
Visual Arts Critic, The Birmingham News

“... a remarkable mix of drama, darkness, poignancy, and celebration...”

Richard Friedman,
Executive Director
Birmingham Jewish Federation

The Exhibit will be in the Cadence Bank Gallery at Shelton State Community College
March 24 - April 10, 2015
Open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Monday through Friday

Special speakers,
Mitzi Levin, artist, and survivor Ruth Siegler, will be at opening reception
March 24, 2015, at 3:00 p.m.
For information, call 205.391.2254.