

Your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. Before awarding Federal Student Aid, the law requires you to confirm the information reported on your FAFSA. To verify the provided information was correct, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this verification document and any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and the parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents within fifteen days. Additional information may be required. For more information about verification, contact the Enrollment Services Office at FA@sheltonstate.edu.

E. Student/Spouse Tax Forms and Income Information To Be Verified

The best way to verify income is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) that is part of the FAFSA on the Web at FAFSA.gov. In most cases, no further information is needed to verify 2021 income information that was transferred into the student's FAFSA using the IRS DRT if the information was not changed by the FAFSA filer. Check the box below that applies.

Student	Spouse	Please check the boxes that apply.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	This person used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web to transfer 2021 IRS income tax return information into the student's FAFSA.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	This person has not yet used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web, but this person will use the tool to transfer 2021 IRS income tax return information into the student's FAFSA and re-submit the FAFSA.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	This person is unable or chooses not to use the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web, but this person will provide the College with a 2021 IRS Tax Transcript(s). (See instructions on our website to obtain a tax transcript under "Financial Aid Forms.")
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	This person is not filing 2021 income taxes, and this person is not required to file a 2021 U.S. Federal Tax Return. Complete section F.

F. Student/Spouse Non-tax Filer Information for 2021

All independent students/spouses who are non-tax filers and selected for verification by the Department of Education are required to provide verification from the IRS. To obtain this documentation, you will need to go to www.irs.gov. Print and complete Form 4506. Mark #7 Verification of Non-filing. For #9, the year or period requested should be 12/31/2021. Sign and date the form, and then mail or fax the form to the information on page 2 of Form 4506-T. An information sheet with step-by-step instructions is located on the College's website under "Financial Aid Forms."

- H. Instructions for Amended Tax Return Filers - Tax filers who have amended their 2020 tax return can use the IRS DRT to load their tax information into the FAFSA, but they will still need to provide the Shelton State Community College’s Enrollment Services Office with a signed copy of the 2021 1040X filed with the IRS.
- I. Instructions for Victims of IRS Identity Theft - If you are unable to obtain an IRS Tax Return Transcript due to identity theft, please call 1.800.908.4490. You will be able to obtain an alternative document (TRDBV) acceptable for verification. We will also require a signed statement by the tax filer verifying the IRS-related identity theft and proof that the IRS has been notified.
- J. Certification and Signatures - Each person signing this worksheet certifies that all of the information reported on it is complete and correct. If dependent, the student and one parent must sign and date this worksheet.

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is the only form a student is required to complete to be considered for student assistance from any of the Title IV/Higher Education Acts (HEA) programs. No additional application or other request for information can be required by an institution in support of the student’s request for Title IV/HEA program assistance, except for information needed to ensure the student’s eligibility for such assistance (e.g., information needed to complete verification or to demonstrate compliance with the student eligibility provisions of the HEA and the regulations).

Each institution will make reasonable accommodations for qualified disabled applicants or employees.

It is the policy of the Alabama Community College System Board of Trustees and Shelton State Community College, a postsecondary institution under its control, that no person shall, on the grounds of race, color, national origin, religion, marital status, disability, gender, age, or any other protected class as defined by federal and state law, be excluded from participation, denied benefits, or subjected to discrimination under any program, activity, or employment.
